Comment. Merchant vessel ANT'EPEN was reported for the first time. The Hamburger Taegliche Hafennachrichten also fail to indicate the arrival of a ship of this name in Hamburg on about 2 March 1953. It is believed that this vessel possibly was Dutch merchant ship BETTY which, carrying a cargo of 230 tons of fish meal, arrived in Hamburg from Bodoe, Norway, on 3 March 1953. S.S. INES CORRADO arrived with a cargo of pyrites in Hamburg from Carthagena, Spain, on 4 March 1953 and discharged in Hamburg-Harburg. Greek merchant ship NEDON arrived in Hamburg from the Far East on 11 March 1953. Swedish M.S. ASTEN arrived in Hamburg on 12 March 1953 and again left on 14 March 1953. S.S. KONSUL NIMTZ arrived in Hamburg from Carthagena on 15 March 1953. Dutch M.S. YSEL, 1,837 GRT, arrived in Hamburg on 20 March 1953 from Norway, rather than the Levant. Greek merchant ship ANONIOS with a cargo of pyrites arrived in Hamburg from Spain on 24 March 1953. British merchant ship ASSIMINA K. left Tsingtao on 2 February 1953 and arrived in Hamburg on 30 April 1953.
